Rashtraniti (राष्ट्रनीति)

In 2015, the first National Youth Parliament Competition was conducted by the School of Law. It received a lot of support and encouragement due to meticulous planning and thoroughly researched agendas.

The success of 2015 laid the foundation of an annual national event which came to be known as Rashtraniti. The School of Law now conducts National Youth Parliament every year. The word 'Rashtraniti' carried glory and gravity enough to attract participants from various parts of the country.

In 2016 Rashtraniti consisted of 150 delegates from all across the nation, in 2017 Rashtraniti saw expansion to an extent which was incredible. Subsequently in year 2018, 2019 and 2020 where over 150 participants from various states shared their views and ideas. The event became a platform for extensive sharing of knowledge, ideas and opinions.

In 2021 due to Covid-19 pandemic School of Law, IMS Unison University couldn't organize Rashtraniti following the government guidelines. In 2022 School of Law is back again with even greater zeal and enthusiasm.
